

Welcome

Written by Administrator
Monday, 06 July 2009 16:47

---

Could you survive being taken away from your parents , being sexually abused, living in foster homes with strangers who were supposed to care for you but didn't, your father being killed and your mother being sent to prison for it? Diane survived all this and more. Not only did she survive, but she learned how to overcome victim thinking that leads to repeating victimization. And now she shares her message with you so you can live the life you so richly deserve.